

Nurses Know the Value of Massage

One hundred fifty-one U.S. nurse practitioners were surveyed on the level and source of their knowledge of complementary and alternative medicine (CAM), including their referral practices involving these Therapies. Survey results showed that nurses referred patients to massage therapists more than to any other type of CAM provider.

Source: Sohn PM, Loveland-Cook CA. Nurse practitioner knowledge of complementary and alternative care: foundation for practice. Journal of Advanced Nursing 2002;39(1), pp9-16.